Suspected. Deputy Sheriff E. E. Johns was foully murdered near this city last Wednesday, says a Fernandina dispatch to the Jacksonville Metropolis, and there is great excitement here, as his body was found last night with a bullet hole through his skull. On Wednesday morning, a man calling himself Abe Brown, came to Fernanding and swore out a warrant for a man named Doty, alleging that Doty had stolen some fishing nets. The warrant was given to Deputy Sheriff Johns to serve, and he left town in a buggy to make the arrest. Mr. Johns did not return to the city Wednesday and his absence caused considerable uneasiness, and vesterday morning searching parties were organized, and about noon the horse and buggy were found at Davis' crossing. The search was continued for Mr. Johns last night between the hammock and the beach, and Mr. Jonhs' body was finally found lying in the hammock near the beach.

Two Cases in Mayor's Court.

Two white men were arraigned before Major Smith, in the City Court this morning. One was arrested on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. He was fined $3 and costs. The other man, who is a brother, was arrested and an officer in the discharge of his duties.

The Havana Health Authorities are Making a Vigorous Campaign to Thoroughly Stamp it Out.

On account of the prevalence of yelow fever in Havana and the timidity of many to go there for that reason the following from the Daily Telegraph of recent date will be interesting and instructive.

"The sanitary authorities announced that they believed the yellow fever situation was under their control at present, and that they had acted in time to prevent an epidemic from spreading over the city, though they readily admitted that they expected a few more cases. They are working diligently however, in an effort to rid the city of the infected stegomyia, as well as all other mosquitoes, and as the necessary funds required for fighting this pest are forthcoming, believe they will be able to rid the city permanently of yellow

"In an interview with a reporter of The Telegraph, Dr. Barnett stated that the authorities thought they had the spread of the disease under control that they had in every case traced the foci and taken precautions as to the preading of the disease. He stated that the authorities were now taking steps to stamp out permanently the yellow fever in Havana, and for that matter in Cuba, and as the president had decreed them all the necessary money, salaries whose reports for 20 days taught they felt sure they would succeed in this

> "The furnigating brigades have been ncreased and will continue to work broughout the city, taking in every house with the intention of killing every mosquito in Havana."

sunset, when the rosy light was dying Far down the pathway of the west, saw a lonely dove in silence flying, To be at rest.

"Pilgrim of air." I cried, "could I but borrow Thy wandering wings, thy freedom blest, I'd fly away from every careful sorrow And find my rest.

But when the dusk a filmy veil was weaving, Back came the dove to seek her nest, Deep in the forest, where her mate was grieving-There was true rest.

Peace, heart of mine! No longer sigh to wander; Lose not thy life in fruitless quest. There are no happy islands over youder;

THE LAST ROSE OF SUMMER

By Thomas Moore

THOMAS MOORE. "the sweet singer of Ireland," was born at Dublin May 28, 1779, and died in England Feb. 25, 1852. Moore received a liberal education and traveled in America in 1803 and 1804. His poems, particularly "Lalla Rookh," were very successful and netted him a competency liesides them, he wrote a life of Byron (with whom he was intimate, a history of Ireland and other works. He is now the most popular of Ireland.

All her lovely companions
Are faded and gone;
No flower of her kindred,
sebud, is nigh
ect back her blushes

Thy leaves o'er the bed Where thy mates of the garden Lie scentless and dead.
